International MBA

Bar-Ilan University's International School and the Graduate School of Business Administration offer an International Master of Business Administration (IMBA) degree, which is taught entirely in English.

Overview

Israel is a country that lives and breathes innovation. Our entrepreneurial spirit has resulted in the highest number of startups per capita in the world. BIU's IMBA is your gateway to global business and entrepreneurship with a focus on the development and growth of the Startup Nation.

Why Do Your International MBA at BIU?

Our IMBA program is a very popular choice for international students, with a large number of our alumni coming from countries all over the world. Being a graduate of the IMBA opens up a world of opportunities and highly increases chances of securing a first-rate position in some of the largest and most successful companies in Israel or abroad.

Geared towards providing practical, applicable skills, this 15-month program enables you to obtain an excellent MBA in Israel and provides you with the knowledge, tools, and skills required to ensure success in today's business market from an international perspective.

You will meet and learn from some of the most creative, talented, and charismatic business leaders in Israel. You'll also have the experience of a lifetime and make lifelong connections.

Internationally Recognized Faculty

Located in the Tel Aviv metropolitan area in the high-tech corridor, Bar-Ilan University is consistently ranked in the top 2% of all universities throughout the world. Its faculty includes prize-winning professors and lecturers who are internationally recognized for their academic achievements and have led significant advancements in their fields of research.

The Graduate School of Business' distinguished faculty includes applied researchers, inventors, entrepreneurs, general managers, organizational consultants, human resource management professionals, and financial directors. It also attracts notable visiting lecturers and educators from business and industry worldwide.

The active involvement of leaders from the business world in the school's advisory board ensures that the curriculum is always up-to-date with the most exciting and relevant trends in the international business community.

Affordable Tuition

Tuition costs for Bar-Ilan University's International MBA program are set periodically by the Israeli Council for Higher Education and are therefore very affordable for Israeli students, including olim, (approx. NIS 30,000) and international students (approx. NIS 37,500).

Degree Program

We've jam-packed all the essential high-level courses you'd expect from a top-grade MBA program into a journey that gives you all the essentials and more in a short space of time. The coursework focuses on linking theory to practice in a range of subjects including valuation, financial planning, marketing, strategy, innovation, leadership, and more.

The program is designed to fit the needs of those who are working simultaneously, allowing you to maintain a balance between working and studying. Classes take place twice a week on a hybrid basis (both online and face-to-face) on Mondays from 15:00 to 20:15 and Friday mornings from 9:00 to 12:15.

We have also partnered with leading institutions abroad to give you the opportunity to study in Europe for a semester cost-free through the EU's Erasmus and Student Exchange programs.

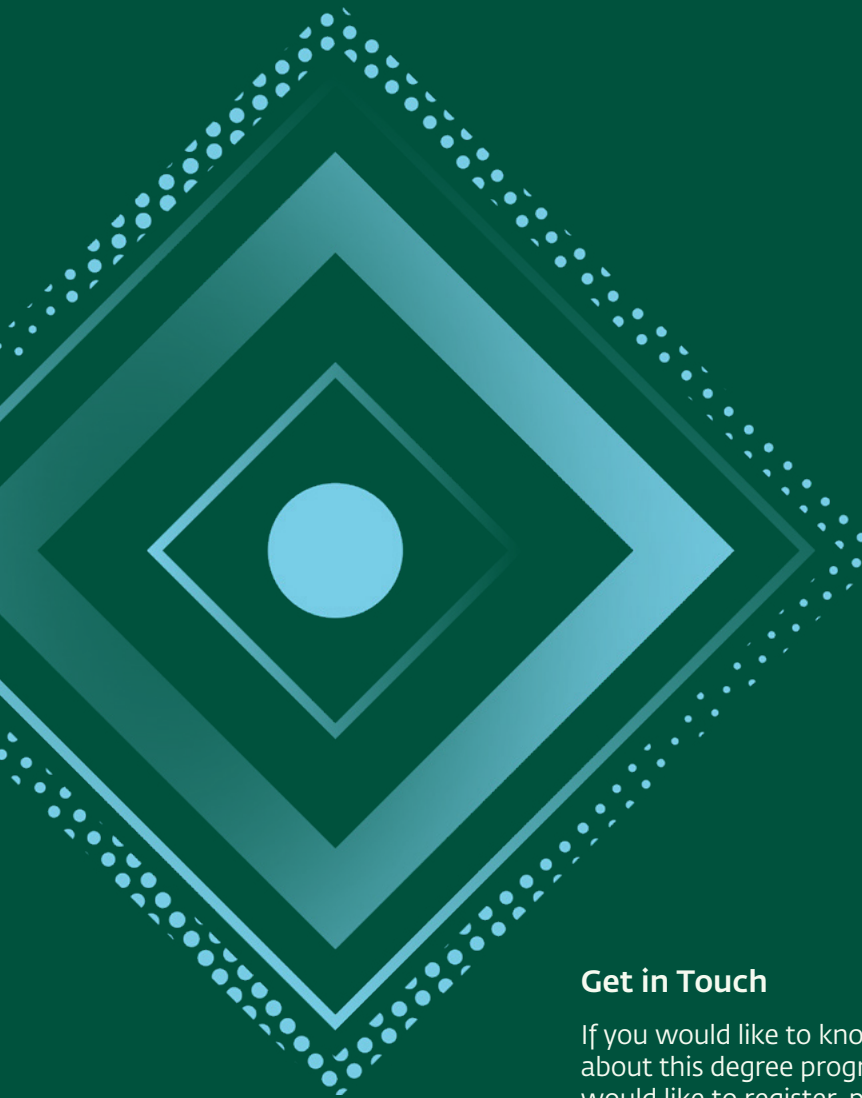

Is Our Program Right for You?

If you're motivated and ambitious, interested in learning about the theory of business and entrepreneurship from knowledgeable and insightful lecturers while simultaneously gaining practical skills, if you're looking to build an international network of talented and diverse peers, and your English is of a high level, then our program is for you.

The International MBA program at Bar-Ilan University, which is taught in the heart of the Startup Nation, is the place to develop the skills and knowledge you need for a successful business future, whether you plan to stay in Israel or work abroad.

Join us at Bar-Ilan University for this exciting and unique opportunity to learn the core skills you need to achieve a stimulating and successful future.
